Take a step back in time to this beautiful, luxurious and unique property boasting an 1860's feel with elegant features you could only dream of having, leaving you with a sense of seclusion and tranquillity. Known as Little Forest, this property is set on 40 acres and contains 6 elegant country style cottages all of which have beautifully crafted timber flooring and high ceilings. Early morning sunrises and late afternoon sunsets will be a pleasure to watch from your very own fully timbered gazebo offering views you could only imagine living on. Along with cottages is this rare and exclusive train carriage which has been fully set up to live in and offers gas cooking, ducted heating, fancy cornices and your very own private bedroom. Little Forest has been attracting people such as artists
