

A Classic in the heart of town

A chance to secure a piece of history in the most historic street in town. This home has all the character and appeal and is amongst one of the most affordable. A quaint front verandah takes you back in time. This home has had additions over the years and is certainly a must to put on your inspection list.

- Appealing 3 bedroom home on 1022m2 block
- Functional kitchen & dining combined
- Lined timber walls inside and polished floors
- High ceilings, formal entry and ceiling fans
- Ideal backyard being fully fenced with garden shed

The property is located in the thriving township of Picton. The ideal semi rural/lifestyle dream, with all the conveniences of city living. Less than one hour to Sydney, and 40 minutes to Wollongong's beautiful coastline. Enquire today and book your private inspection!!

Gerard Smith