

1 Wellington Street BUXTON, NSW

 4  2  1

Great Little Starter

This freshly painted brick home is perfect for first home buyer or someone wanting to start a family. This home has a lot of potential, lounge room and open plan living off the kitchen/dining area that also flows out to a large covered entertaining area. The second bathroom has a bath tub and there is a separate toilet too. Ideally located in a quiet cul-de-sac street. Loads of potential, act fast and book an inspection today!

- Four bedrooms, built ins to all, ensuite off the master bedroom
- Brilliant open plan kitchen, flowing through to a meals/dining area
- Fully fenced yard, single garage with external access
- Solar heating, gas heating and ceiling fans through out
- Bio Septic system and air-conditioning

The popular village of Buxton is located approximately 15 minutes south of Picton and 20 minutes from the beautiful Southern Highlands of New South Wales. Well loved for its laid back, relaxed semi rural lifestyle and native surroundings, the area is ideal for investment/future capital growth, or to raise a family in a safe environment. Enquire today to book your private inspection.

Gerard Smith