Homes in the Bargo market tend not to last long due to the affordable price, location and attraction that Bargo has to offer. Due to the increase in the market and large buyer demand, we are expecting this home to sell quickly. With a safe environment for the kids to play and town sewer getting connected very soon, this is a home that should be on your inspection list.

The fast growing township of Bargo is located 10 minutes south of Picton and is renowned for its semi rural lifestyle, great access to the freeway and close proximity to both Sydney and Wollongong. Move fast on this one!
