True Cottage Charm...626m2

Offering pure quality and character, this historic home is built from original handmade sandstock bricks, and has been fully restored to its original glory. Located in a quiet cul de sac with peace and privacy assured, you will fall in love with the period atmosphere of the property and surrounding cottage gardens. Truly unique, this home lends itself to the buyer looking for something 'a little different.'

- Two large bedrooms, federation style bathroom
- Beautiful modern kitchen, gourmet gas cooker
- Solid red mahogany floors, high ceilings, handcrafted timber windows
- Split system air conditioning, gas heating
- Separate double garage, previously a granny flat with bathroom and kitchenette
- Outdoor entertaining areas, landscaped gardens
