A comfortable home on a large block of land under $300,000...? Surely this property is worth your inspection. Offering value for money, this would suit the 1st home buyer, investor or young family looking for a bit of space away from the rat race...

- Three good sized bedrooms, built ins to two
- Large living areas, formal lounge & dining
- Timber floorboards, gas heating & slow combustion fire
- Decent kitchen, looking over the yard, carport & garden shed
- Large corner block of land with dual road frontage

Buxton is a sleepy village, located just 5 minutes from Thirlmere in the popular Wollondilly District. Offering a quieter semi rural lifestyle, yet still with great access to both Sydney and Wollongong, being less than 1 hours drive to either city. Ideal for anybody looking for a tree change and a great opportunity to get into the market at the right price!! Owners are
