

127 Great Southern Road BARGO, NSW

4

1

2

Four Bedroom Home

This four bedroom home feels like a private oasis and is located just a short stroll to the local train station. There are four bedrooms all with built-in wardrobes, two living areas and separate dining with fire place and air conditioning. Walk out through your sliding glass doors to your huge undercover entertainment area and large double lock up garage with separate work shop. You will love the oasis feeling in the backyard with palm trees and a stunning in ground pool. There is a gated entrance with rear yard access, large backyard with an extra garden shed.

Please note: Tenants are responsible for the maintenance of the pool.

The property is on the market for sale.

Homes in the fast growing township of Bargo are renting quickly due to the terrific value available, location and proximity to main arterial road networks.

Bargo is located 10 minutes south of Picton and is renowned for its semi rural lifestyle, great access to the freeway and close proximity to both Sydney and Wollongong.

Sue Rosella