The River House on 5.4 Acres

PROPERTIES COMING ONTO THE MARKET LIKE THIS ARE RARE. ACT QUICKLY ON THIS ONE!

Magically secluded, this spacious two-storey family home is nestled in its own pocket of native woodland on the banks of the Bargo River. This magnificent property is ideally suited to those looking for real privacy and native surrounds, a truly rare offering to the market.

The home is beautifully presented offering multiple living options from the huge lounge/formal dining room, open plan meals area off the kitchen and large living area upstairs which flows to the expansive covered balcony overlooking the beautiful natural setting.

Rolling lawns lead to easy paths down to a totally private 200 metre stretch of the Bargo River for all your water pursuits, and up through the trees to a series of enchanting lookouts across the gorge.

- Impressive large four bedroom home with ensuite to main plus 2 bathrooms
- Plenty of storage options, all bedrooms have built-ins
