We are proud to offer this historic property to the market. The original home stood approximately 130 years ago and has been completely restored, extended and modernised whilst maintaining all the charm of yesteryear. The detail and workmanship gone into restoring the property is second to none.

As soon as you set foot in the front door you will be drawn to the impressive hardwood timber flooring and high ceilings. The home is beautifully presented offering multiple living options from the large lounge and open plan meals area off the kitchen.

Enjoy the cottage garden view as you have a coffee on the lovely north facing verandah which is also a great place to entertain family and friends.
