

154 Hawthorne Road Bargo, NSW

3 1 4

Tradesman Delight on 1220m2

What more could you ask for with this appealing residential home that offers a tradesman's shed sure to impress anyone looking to work from home or just to have extra storage space.

This is an appealing property in a unique position situated in a great street having quality homes surrounding. Set back off the street sitting on a larger than normal parcel of land with potential for a dual occupancy or granny flat subject to council approval.

The home has had a full renovation recently including: carpet, bathroom and roof restoration.

A beautiful rural streetscape having established gardens and an extra wide street that creates plenty of space for this home in the heart of Bargo Township. The property is faultless in presentation and has many more wonderful features:

- ?Appealing 3 bedroom home on 1220m2
- ?Modern kitchen having stainless steel appliances
- ?Formal entry, ceiling

Gerard Smith