

467 Argyle Street Picton, NSW

 5  2  2

Rich in History on 1948m²

We are proud to offer this historic home to the market "Tyrone" boasting a premium position and being a true icon to the district.

Charm & Character are on display in the sale of this exclusive home and rarely do you see these kind of opportunities come onto the market.

The presentation is flawless with not a thing to do including high end quality fixtures and fittings. The home has had a recent renovation and been modernise for all today's comforts yet bearing in mind the original period the home was built in.

The weatherboard home is set amongst established gardens and mature shade trees and retains many of its original features. Impressive wide verandahs with original cast iron lace work, original timber flooring and high ceilings showcase some of the homes true workmanship.

Sit back and relax taking in the distant rural views from the amazing outdoor entertaining area.

?Historic 5 bedroom weatherboard home on 1948m² block

Gerard Smith