This is a unique opportunity to purchase a rare parcel of land adjoining large acreage situated at the end of the street. The home has a beautiful rural outlook with peace & privacy assured, yet only minutes drive to all facilities & freeway access.

A commanding home in size set amongst established trees & gardens. There is a great opportunity for the large family with this home having many living options. In total there are 5 bedrooms, 3 bathroom and 4 living areas.

Ideal for the tradesman, truck driver or horse lover. There is a good size shed with power, water & separate paddock at the back.

The owner has this property looking great and has now decided its time to move on allowing an exciting chance for a new owner to purchaser this excellent property.

It's a solid brick home
